

Dr. Srboljub Ubiparipović,
Faculty of Orthodox Theology of the University of Belgrade (Serbia)

The Order of Deaconesses and Liturgical renewal in the Orthodox Church: historical, teleturgical and theological aspects

Abstract:

Liturgical renewal in the Orthodox Church has initiated very thorough and significant examination of lex orandi of the Orthodox Christians. In a wide range of topics concerning strengthening and improving of woman's role in the logiki latreia of Body of Christ, place sui generis belongs to potential renewal of the Order of Deaconesses.

The goal of this scientific work is, from liturgical point of view, authentic analysis and comparative examination plenty of historical, teleturgical and theological aspects in effort to answer on the question: is it possible at all, under what kind of circumstances and how could be reaffirmed the Order of Deaconesses?